One method more I recommend to you, by which I have found great benefit, even in the most dissipated part of my life: that is, to rise early and at the same hour every morning, how late soever you may have sat up the night before. You may say, it may be, as many young people would, that all this order and method is very troublesome, and only fit for dull people, and a disagreeable restraint upon the noble spirit and fire of youth, I deny it, and assert, on the contrary, that it will procure you both more time and more taste for your pleasures; and, go far from being troublesome to you, that, after you have pursued it a month, it would be troublesome to you to...
