Otis Robinson Bacheler, M. D., D.D: Fifty-Three Years Missionary to India In undertaking to set in order a record of the life of Dr. Bacheler, together with that of Mrs. Bacheler - a work which we felt obliged to decline at first, on account of other pressing duties - we were led to do so from two considerations. The first was, the fact that the record of such a noble and useful life ought to be preserved, to stimulate the church which he so faithfully served, and to profit the entire Christian world. The second was, love for the man through personal relations. In the highest sense he was to us a brother exemplary. To those who have assisted us in this work, we wish to return thanks. We have had access to all of our denominational as well as other literature and records; have used the brief autobiography left by him; taken what information we needed from his book Hinduism and Christianity in Orissa; gleaned from diaries, private letters, and Records of the...
