THE GOSPEL: ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Gospel: According to St. Luke The four walls and the twelve gates of the Seer looked in different directions, but together they guarded, and opened into, one City of God. So the four Gospels look in different directions; each has its own peculiar aspect and inscription; but together they lead towards, and unveil, one Christ, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. They are the successive quarterings of the one Light. We call them four Gospels, though in reality they form but one, just as the seven arches of colour weave one bow; and that there should be four, and not three or five, was the purpose and design of the Mind which is above all minds. There are diversities of operations even in making Testaments, New or Old; but it is one Spirit who is over all, and in all; and back of all diversity is a heavenly unity - a unity that is not broken, but rather beautified, by the variety of its component parts. Turning to the third Gospel, its opening sentences strike a key-note unlike the tone of the other three. Matthew, the Levite Apostle, schooled in the receipt of custom - where parleying and preambles were not allowed - goes to his subject with sharp abruptness, beginning his story with a genesis, the book of the generation of Jesus Christ.
