Three years have passed since the economic collapse in the US and the western world. Rachel and Tom live a humbly comfortable life in their little town in the middle of nowhere. But all is not well as homesteading problems are on the rise due to lack of resources. While the town receives assistance from refugee newcomer residents with skills to help, they also find themselves engulfed by strange new occurrences. Some of the townspeople attribute these incidents to mere coincidence, while others believe there are more sinister forces at work. Before they know it, their little town is in the midst of conflict as one of the few remaining places that still retains American values and traditions. Rachel, Tom, and the rest of the town must fight to maintain their way of life. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
